'Teignmouth Sings'

Concert in aid of CAFOD

Saturday 21 May
Anthony is being admitted to Candidacy for Holy Orders at 11.30am at the Cathedral in Plymouth. It will take place during a Mass to celebrate the Permanent Diaconate, as part of the Year of Mercy, and the Deacons of the diocese will renew their ordination vows. There are four candidates Anthony Carey, Lester Yeo, Kelvin Russell and Tim Van Kroonenburg. All are welcome to attend.

Lent Lunches
in Teignmouth raised an incredible £869.70 for the work of Christian Aid. Thanks to everyone who helped especially the children from Our Lady & St Patrick's School, who were helpful, cheerful and a credit to their parents and the school.

St Agatha's Garden
Believe it or not it is spring again and thoughts turn to gardening, in particular the grounds at St Agatha's. For the last number of years they have been maintained beautifully by a small hard working crew. However, there is always a need for more volunteers, so if you feel you could spare a few hours during the summer you would be more than welcome. It is a true saying you always closer to God in a garden. If you are interested please contact Eileen and Bernard Tel 01626 8658611 email elowry@btinternet.com

Friday Lunch Club

At the request of some parishioners Carole (Cupcake) will be hosting a Friday Lunch Club once a month. The first lunch will take place on 6th May at 12 noon. 24 places available at £6.95 per person. The menu on this occasion is Fish Pie and Sticky Toffee Pudding. You may bring your own wine if you wish. Please let Carole know if you would like to book a place
Tel. 772016

Lifts to Mass

Two parishioners require lifts to the 10.30am Mass on Sundays. One parishioner lives in Holcombe and the other in Teignmouth. If you can help please contact Linda in the Parish Office. Without lifts these two parishioners will be unable to get to Mass

World Book Night

23 April 2016

For many years 23 April, Shakespeare's Birthday, has been celebrated as an opportunity to rejoice in all things literary. One way is the great giveaway in which 'The Reading Agency' provides 18 copies of a specific book to volunteers who seek to hand them out, the idea being, to give them to people who might not often pick a novel up, so as to encourage them to 'put out into the deep' of imagination.

I have had the good fortune to be one of these volunteers for four years now and this year is no different. My book is 'Shadow and Bones' which I haven't actually read myself yet, but it looks interesting. Therefore, I have the fun task of encouraging adults to read more by giving them a book. However, it always seems to me to be a good opportunity for people who do enjoy reading to get together and share their enthusiasm so on Friday 22 April, a day before WBN, I invite anyone who wants to, to come to the Presbytery at 7pm to have an evening of conversation, fun, laughter and book swap. Come along with novels you are willing to give away or swap, bring your favourite novel and maybe find a passage in it that you would be prepared to share, or just come along to hear what other people are reading and enthusing about. No strings attached, no hidden agenda... just come and enjoy.

Disability, Culture and Faith

'In June this year, Bishop Paul Hendricks alongside the Kairos Forum UK and in partnership with the Pontifical Council for Culture, will be co-ordinating two exciting events in Rome, for the Jubilee Year. These events are creative, international and ecumenical. Our celebratory activities will interweave the Gospel with the lives, stories and experiences of people of all abilities'.

23 June: An academic symposium, Living Fully 2016:

Disability, Culture and Faith

24-26 June: A creative and vibrant conference, a
