THE WORD TODAY

WHO DO
YOU SAY
I AM?

16th September 2018
24th Week in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Isaiah 50:5-9

I offered my back to those who struck me.

Psalm Response (Spoken)

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

Psalm Response (Sung)

I will walk in the presence of God.

Second Reading

James 2:14-18

If good works do not go with faith, it is quite dead.

Gospel

Mark 8:27-35

You are the Christ. The Son of Man is destined to suffer grievously.

Second Reading James 3:16-4:3

Gospel Mark 9:33-37

HOME MISSION SUNDAY

In today's Gospel, Jesus presents us, as disciples, with a challenging question, "Who do you say I am?" For some, the most challenging element of this question is about whether we talk about him at all.

Today on Home Mission Sunday we have been praying for the spread of the Gospel and in the second collection will have the opportunity to support it financially by giving what we can.

The money you give to this collection does not go abroad but is used to help Catholics in England and Wales become more confident in sharing their faith. For more information about the Home Mission Office, please visit www.homemission.org.uk

NOTICES

ADOREMUS Carole and Jon Bryant attended the Adoremus Eucharist Congress Liverpool last weekend. The concluding Mass on Sunday saw the cathedral full to capacity and 10,000 & more joined the half-hour Eucharistic procession afterwards in spite of torrential rain. Carole says: "We feel very blessed and had a wonderful time meeting many different people from Diocese all around the country. Most of the keynote speeches can be found on the website catholicnews.org.uk or follow the link on YouTube for Bishop Robert Barron. Feel free to talk Carole if you'd like to know more about the Congress.

RCIA We will be starting a new RCIA group in the near future. If you are interested in learning more, speak to Fr Mark or Deacon Anthony.
