NOTICES

SONGS AND SCONES Thank you to all who attended our first Songs and Scones afternoon. Over 30 people came for what turned out to be a delightful afternoon of music and song. There were a range of ages from all over our three parish areas and the hymns chosen varied from old to new. We were thrilled with the turn out and the £36 raised towards renovating the OLSP organ. We are very grateful to all who helped with providing the teas and coffees afterwards, especially Fr Mark, Mary and Carole who provided the scones, jam and cream and Carolyn who led us in heartfelt prayer at the end of our session. We look forward to our next session at 3pm on 27 January. Thank you also to the Divine Renovation Group for inspiring the idea.

SINGING A number of visitors to our churches have remarked on the excellent singing by our congregation and have asked that we let you know how appreciated and uplifting it is.

NOTICES

RED BOXES Please leave red boxes at the back of church for collection. Many thanks to all new members.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH INDEED to the 10 cellar clearers at OLSP last Saturday. The team worked extremely hard and managed to shift tonnes of rubbish in just a couple of hours.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA CHRISTMAS APPEAL Donations of confectionery, toiletries, socks and small items, such as playing cards, notebooks (small) would be much appreciated. Please leave them in boxes at the back of church. Our grateful thanks.

HITS TOY COLLECTION Please bring new/nearly new toys to church on the first two Sundays of Advent. These will go to HITS who will distribute them to children in need this Christmas.

POSADA Sign up to take part in the All Saints Posada and host the statue of Mary, Joseph and the donkey for a night in Advent before taking it to the next host family. A lovely way to share prayers and hospitality.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS COLLECTIONS There will be a collection for Christmas flowers after Mass at St Agatha's on 15th December and at St Ignatius on 16th December.
